Change # 6

Delete from Page 7, Exhibit A, Detailed Goals and Objectives, the following language:

The Office of Tourism will supplement the Contractor's purchase of targeted, pre-selected media outlined in the 2009-2010 Louisiana Travel Promotion Association Marketing Plans to promote and market the region's tourism resources.

The Office of Tourism will supplement the Contractor's purchase of targeted, pre-selected media outlined in the 2009-2010 and 2010-2011 Louisiana Travel Promotion Association Marketing Plans, as well as other media approved by the State to promote and market the region's tourism resources.

Justification for the Amendment:

The LOT is specifically authorized to establish and support cooperative advertising programs (La. R.S. 51:1255). Cooperative advertising is a system by which advertising costs are divided between two or more parties. In this cooperative advertising program, the state LOT encourages local tourism convention and visitor bureaus and tourist commissions ("CVBs") to advertise the local tourism "product."

CVBs are political subdivisions of the state, statutorily authorized to "do all things necessary for the promotion and the advertisement and publication of information relating to tourist attractions within its jurisdiction" (La. R.S. 33:4574).

The tourism product is any activity or experience a tourist may participate in. For the LOT, the tourism product includes all of the communities, attractions, features, experiences, and events in the entire state of Louisiana. For a local CVB, the tourism product includes the communities, attractions, features, experiences, and events within its jurisdiction.

The LOT cooperative advertising program is administered in part through the nonprofit travel industry association, Louisiana Travel Promotion Association (LTPA). The LOT is statutorily directed to cooperate with governmental agencies (e.g., CVBs) and nonprofit associations (e.g., the LTPA) to market Louisiana as a tourism destination. CVBs can select media offered in LTPA marketing plans, plus additional media that is approved by the State. The media plan offered by the LTPA is a result of LTPA's media research which identified media outlets appropriate for tourism promotion. The media placement rates offered through the LTPA media plans were negotiated by LTPA, and therefore reflect discounts below published rates for placing media in the selected outlets. However, it is in the best interest of the state and local communities to allow CVBs to purchase State-approved media that is not included in LTPA's marketing plans.

Media research and negotiation of media placement rates are valuable services provided by advertising agencies and marketing firms to entities that promote their products through advertising. The LOT cooperative advertising program cuts out the advertising agencies (and their hourly rates and/or media commissions) and allows the local CVBs to purchase the pre-negotiated, pre-selected media offered through the state's non-profit travel association, as well as approved media outside the LTPA marketing plans.

Revenues generated by the LTPA are re-invested in activities that complement and enhance the statutory duties and public purposes of the LOT and the CVBs, namely the promotion and expansion of tourism in Louisiana.

The 2009-2010 cooperative advertising programs proved to be an effective and efficient use of public funds. It is more efficient for the state LOT to encourage local CVBs to advertise their own tourism product (which is part of the state's "tourism product") and then provide a 50% rebate to the CVB for those ads, than it would be for the state LOT to buy an ad to promote the local CVB's tourism product (again, which is part of the state's "tourism product") at the full price of the ad plus fees for media research and/or media commissions.

Based on that success and due to the availability of funds, the LOT allowed CVBs to apply to continue participating in this program through fiscal year 2011. The Contractor was awarded the opportunity to participate in this program for FY 2011. This amendment is intended to continue the Contractor's participation in the program through fiscal year 2011.
