R.S. 36:201.B) and its Office of Tourism is statutorily mandated to "encourage and promote tourism and the tourist industry for the benefit of the people of this and other states and as a developing economic resource; and shall cooperate with local tourist promotion and convention agencies. . ." (La. R.S. 36:208.F); and

WHEREAS, the Contractor is a political subdivision of the state, statutorily authorized to "do all things necessary for the promotion and the advertisement and publication of information relating to tourist attractions within its jurisdiction" (La. R.S. 33:4574); and

✓ WHEREAS, the LTPA has created a 2009 Marketing Plan, which offers lower rates than buying directly through the publications on print and web advertising for over fifty publications and media outlets and also includes buy in opportunities for participation in trade and consumer shows; and

WHEREAS, the LTPA will receive a percentage of the cost of the media purchased by the Contractor, which funds will be reinvested by the LTPA in programs that educate and promote the tourism industry, which further supports the public purposes and statutory mandates of the Contractor and the State; and

WHEREAS, at this time, there is no other entity that offers a comprehensive marketing plan that offers media purchases at a discounted rate to the Louisiana tourism industry; and

WHEREAS, in accordance with the Office of Tourism's Master Plan to expand and increase the economic impact of tourism in Louisiana through strong and effective public initiatives, the State desires to cooperate with the Contractor in the implementation of a cooperative advertising program designed to leverage state and local tourism funding; and

Justification for the Amendment:

The LOT is specifically authorized to establish and support cooperative advertising programs (La. R.S. 51:1255). Cooperative advertising is a system by which advertising costs are divided between two or more parties. In this cooperative advertising program, the state LOT encourages local tourism convention and visitor bureaus and tourist commissions ("CVBs") to advertise the local tourism "product."

CVBs are political subdivisions of the state, statutorily authorized to "do all things necessary for the promotion and the advertisement and publication of information relating to tourist attractions within its jurisdiction" (La. R.S. 33:4574).

The tourism product is any activity or experience a tourist may participate in. For the LOT, the tourism product includes all of the communities, attractions, features, experiences, and events in the entire state of Louisiana. For a local CVB, the tourism product includes the communities, attractions, features, experiences, and events within its jurisdiction.

The LOT cooperative advertising program is administered through the nonprofit travel industry association, Louisiana Travel Promotion Association (LTPA). The LOT is statutorily directed to cooperate with governmental agencies (e.g., CVBs) and nonprofit associations (e.g., the LTPA) to market Louisiana as a tourism destination. The media plan offered by the LTPA is a result of LTPA's media research which identified media outlets appropriate for tourism promotion. The media placement rates offered through the LTPA media plan were negotiated by LTPA, and therefore reflect discounts below published rates for placing media in the selected outlets.

Media research and negotiation of media placement rates are valuable services provided by advertising agencies and marketing firms to entities that promote their products through advertising. The LOT cooperative advertising program cuts out the advertising agencies (and their hourly rates and/or media commissions) and allows the local CVBs to purchase the pre-negotiated, pre-selected media directly through the state's non-profit travel association.

There is no other entity that offers the Louisiana tourism entities such a media plan. Revenues generated by the LTPA are re-invested in activities that complement and enhance the statutory duties and public purposes of the LOT and the CVBs, namely the promotion and expansion of tourism in Louisiana.

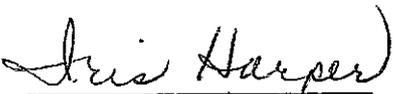

The 2009 cooperative advertising program proved to be an effective and efficient use of public funds. It is more efficient for the state LOT to encourage local CVBs to advertise their own tourism product (which is part of the state's "tourism product") and then provide a 50% rebate to the CVB for those ads, than it would be for the state LOT to buy an ad to promote the local CVB's tourism product (again, which is part of the state's "tourism product") at the full price of the ad plus fees for media research and/or media commissions.

Based on that success and due to the availability of funds, the LOT allowed CVBs to apply to participate in the CAP program for an additional year. The Contractor applied for and was awarded the opportunity to participate in the CAP program for 2010. This amendment is intended to continue the Contractor's participation in the program through calendar year 2010.
