13. SECTIONS:I. LCLE Program Narrative*PROBLEM DEFINITION

1. Are you a Law Enforcement agency?

No

1.1. If Yes, was the previous calendar year's (January-December) Uniform Crime Report data submitted?

A response to this question is optional and no answer was provided.

1.2. If not submitted, please state the date when the UCR data will be submitted.

3/8/2013

2. Identify the nature and magnitude of the specific problem existing in your particular community that needs to be addressed through this proposed project.

Document the need, not the symptoms or solutions. Be sure to include current valid local data or state data, if local data is not available, to support the justification. Give the source and date of your information. State the needs of your agency and the needs of the victims in your area as related to this problem and justify the need for the proposed project.

Metropolitan Center for Women and Children, Inc. (Metro), established in 1986, is a community-based, independent, non-profit 501(c) (3) social service agency serving victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking and human trafficking. Metro's mission is to break the cycle of domestic violence and aid survivors of sexual assault and domestic violence through advocacy, intervention, empowerment and transformation. Metro currently provides wrap-around services, including individual advocacy, information and referrals, group support, medical advocacy, legal advocacy, sheltering, therapy, safety planning, and caregiver support to survivors in nine (9) southeast Louisiana parishes with a population of 1,123,076. These parishes include a spectrum of communities from urban to suburbs to exurbs to rural areas. Metro has a main office complex, four shelters, and six satellite offices. Metro also provides a 24/7 Crisis Line for counseling and/or referrals for victims. All services to survivors offered by Metro are free and confidential.

With sexual assault statistics across the country are on the rise, Metro needs funds to address the needs of victims, women, men, and children. The following statements clarify the importance for providing services:

Sexual violence affects women, children and men, of all ages, races, income levels, lifestyles and geographic areas.

The right of freedom from sexual violence must be impacted through social change and education efforts.

Sexual assault is a societal issue and not a concern only of individual survivors and their families. We disagree with many segments of our society that continue to see sexual violence as something that victims somehow cause or bring on themselves. As long as this view is held, sexual violence will continue to be seen as acceptable under certain circumstances.

No one asks or deserves to be sexually assaulted and those victims of this crime deserve nonjudgmental, unbiased support as they make the decisions they need to make to regain control of their lives.

Metropolitan Center for Women and Children continues to see a demand for services to sexual assault survivors. During 2012, Metro provided counseling services to 515 new primary survivors. Additionally, in 2012, 654 sexual assault survivors called Metro's 24/7 crisis line seeking assistance and referrals.

3. Describe the gap in community resources and how the gap was identified. Explain what need is created by this gap in services/programs.

Statistics in our area and in nation indicate that sexual violence against women and children is increasing. U.S. government statistics reveal one in six women will experience an attempted or completed rape at some time in her life, and it is estimated that a majority of female rape victims are younger than 18. More than 300,000 women are estimated to be victims of sexual assault each year in the U.S. There is a pressing need to address the national prevalence of sexual assault, lack of available direct intervention and related assistance services, and the unique aspects of sexual assault trauma from which victims must heal.

In Metro's service area (Jefferson Parish, St. Bernard Parish, St. Tammany Parish, Plaquemines Parish, St. Charles Parish, St. John Parish, and St. James Parish), Metro is the only agency offering free and confidential sexual assault counseling to survivors. Metro is accredited by LAFASA to offer these services to survivors. Metro also offers services in Orleans Parish where there is another provider. Because Metro is the only sexual assault counseling provider in the 7 parishes listed above, the elimination of this funding would directly impact residents in these parishes who receive services. Residents of these parishes include those individuals who have been historically underserved (minorities, rural, at-risk women).

13. SECTIONS:

J. LCLE Goals

GOALS

I. The primary mission of all projects is to have a positive impact on the victims, not just to accumulate statistics on how many are served. Goal 1: To provide direct intervention, advocacy, support services and related assistance to adult, youth, and child victims of sexual assault, family and household members of victims and those affected by sexual assault, except for the perpetrator of such victimization through individual counseling

Goal 2: To provide direct intervention, advocacy, support services and related assistance to adult, youth, and child victims of sexual assault, family and household members of victims and those affected by sexual assault, except for the perpetrator of such victimization through group counseling

13. SECTIONS:K. LCLE Activities*ACTIVITIES

I. List the specific activities and/or services to be provided that will accomplish the objectives. Must include a timetable for achieving the various components of your project. Timetable must cover the entire grant period. This must relate back to the Goals and Objectives described earlier for your project. If this is a training project, please state below that you are completing the Training Program information.

Goal 1: To provide direct intervention, advocacy, support services and related assistance to adult, youth, and child victims of sexual assault, family and household members of victims and those affected by sexual assault, except for the perpetrator of such victimization through individual counseling

Objective: Provide 40 hours a month of individual counseling services.

The advocates will provide additional resources and services on a case by case basis.

Objective: Provide individual counseling services to 60 victims a year

Activity: Victims who may be referred by other agencies, law enforcement, etc. or who contact Metro directly by Metro's 24/7 crisis line will receive individual counseling and, if needed, referrals for additional help in coping with the trauma of sexual assault.

Timetable:

April 1, 2013 - March 31, 2014

Goal 2: To provide direct intervention, advocacy, support services and related assistance to adult, youth, and child victims of sexual assault, family and household members of victims and those affected by sexual assault, except for the perpetrator of such victimization through group counseling

Objective: Provide 10 hours a month of group counseling services

Data reported to LCLE through the QPR January 1, 2012 - December 31, 2012 show that a total of 90 sexual assault survivors received services through this grant. During that time period, these survivors averaged 6 individual counseling hours each for a total of 540 hours.

- To provide 30 hours a month of group counseling services or 360 hours

Metro's Sexual Assault Advocates provided 32 hours (3 groups x 4 weeks per month x 2.5 hours per group) of group contact hours to victims. Total groups hours from January 1, 2012 - December 31, 2012 were 360 hours.
